SATURDAY 21 NOVEMBER

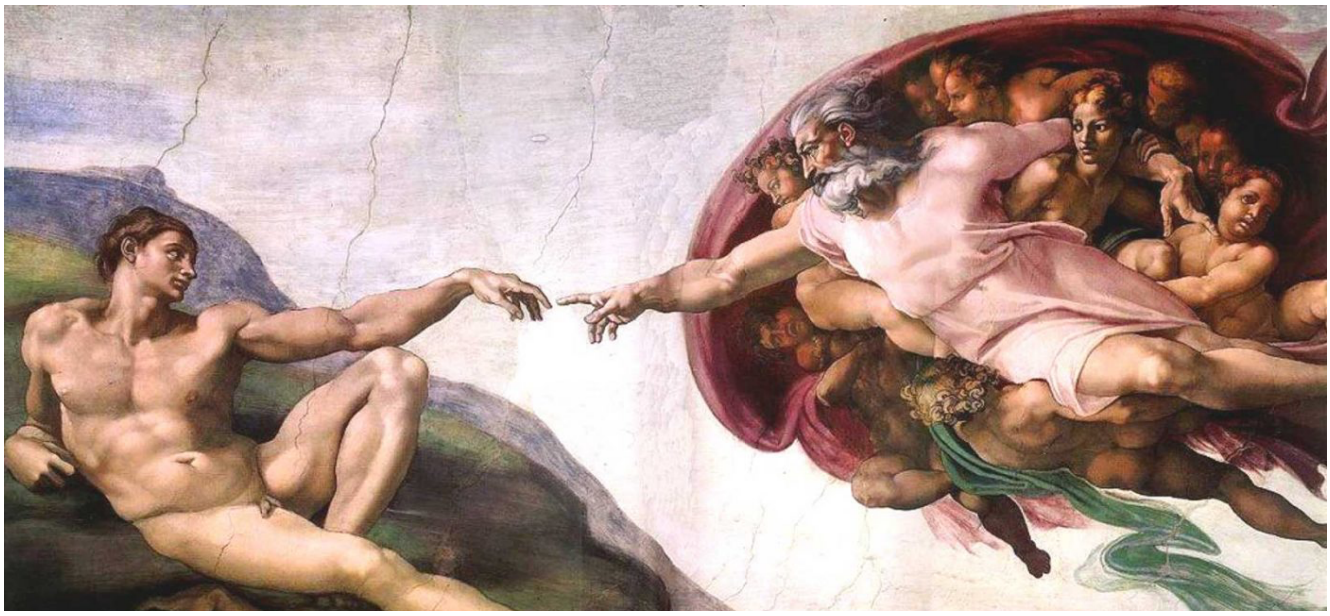

Vatican & Cinecittà

Art and the magic of cinema

MORNING Vatican Museums and the Sistine Chapel with a guided group visit, then St. Peter's Basilica.

The Vatican Museums & the Sistine Chapel

The Vatican Museums grew out of the art collections of the popes and are among the most visited museums in the world. Along the way you will walk through the Gallery of Maps and the Raphael Rooms before reaching the Sistine Chapel.

The Creation of Adam, painted by Michelangelo Buonarroti on the ceiling of the Sistine Chapel in the Vatican

LUNCH Supplì (Roman fried rice croquettes) from a street food spot near the Vatican, eaten on the go.

AFTERNOON

Cinecittà – company visit

Opened in 1937, Cinecittà is Rome's legendary film studio complex, often called "Hollywood on the Tiber". It was the creative home of Federico Fellini and the set of epics such as Ben-Hur and Cleopatra, and more recently of Gangs of New York and the TV series Rome. Today you can step onto sets and explore the history of Italian cinema.

EVENING Dinner at Cencio La Parolaccia in Trastevere (TBC)

Followed by a night out in Trastevere.

SUNDAY 22 NOVEMBER

Gladiator day

Train like a gladiator, then walk where they fought

MORNING Gladiator activity (2 hours).

The Gladiator Experience

Step into the sand of the arena. The experience includes:

- Tour of the Museo del Legionario
- Training to learn how to fight
- Combat
- Certificates with each student's name

LUNCH Traditional Roman food

AFTERNOON Guided visit to the Colosseum, the Imperial Fora and the Palatine Hill

The Colosseum

Rome's greatest amphitheatre, the Colosseum was begun under Emperor Vespasian around 70–72 AD and inaugurated by his son Titus in 80 AD. It could hold some 50,000 spectators, who came to watch gladiator combats, animal hunts and public spectacles. After almost two thousand years it remains the symbol of the city. Our visit continues through the Imperial Fora and the Palatine Hill, the heart of ancient Rome.

LATE AFTERNOON Train back to Florence from Roma Termini.
